

PRICE ONE CENT. NEW YORK, SATURDAY, JUNE 9, 1894. PRICE ONE CENT.

NELLE BLY TAKES THE KEELEY CURE.

EDDIE BURKE IS A HERO.

His Three-Bagger Makes Up for Ground Lost on Ward's Error.

HERE ENDS A JUNE SERIES.

One of the Largest Crowds of the Season at the Polo Grounds.

LANGE WORKS IN A HOME RUN.

Giant Battery, Meekin and Farrell—"Hutch" Pitches for Chicago.

(Special to The Evening World.)
POLO GROUNDS, NEW YORK, June 9.—One of the largest crowds of the season witnessed the closing game of the present series between the Chicago and New York today. While the first two games had been won by the Giants, both were hotly contested from start to finish, and this, coupled with the fact that the weather was perfect, and the afternoon a half holiday, had the effect of crowding the stands.

The star battery, Meekin and Farrell, occupied the points in to-day's game. Jack Doyle's arm was in such a condition that he asked Manager Ward to allow somebody to fill his corner, and Wilson was chosen to cover the initial blow.

The Catholic Protective Band enlivened things by giving a concert before the game for over an hour.

Both teams marched onto the field to music. "Anno" and his aggregation were loudly cheered when they came out for practice. The teams batted as follows:

New York.
Chicago.
Ryan, 1b.
Burke, 2b.
Davis, 3b.
Ward, 4b.
Wilson, 5b.
Parrott, 6b.
Meekin, 7b.
Schriver, 8b.
Hutchinson, 9b.

First Inning.—Ward started things by fumbling Ryan's hot grounder, and first ball up. Ryan's first ball was a corker, and he was out. Wilson's long fly was captured by Van Halteren, but Ryan got to third on the throw in.

Anson sacrificed and Ryan scored. Lange smashed a home run into the right field bleachers, and the crowd went wild. Three runs.

Murphy sent one right into Wilson's hands, and was out. Burke singled between first and second. Davis smacked one past second and Burke got to third. Ward forced out at second. Schriver was out. Parrott to second. Hutchison made a little fly back of third. Hutchison sent one to Murphy and the Yale boy threw to Ward, catching Hutchinson.

Ward then threw to Anson, effecting a pretty double play. No runs.

Wilson was an easy mark for Hutchinson and Anson hit a pretty single. Ryan's fly back of third. Farrell sent a handy to second. Fuller made a circus-jumping catch of Anson's long fly to right, and then Andy boys sent one to second. Fuller made a circus-jumping catch of Anson's long fly to right, and then Andy boys sent one to second. Fuller made a circus-jumping catch of Anson's long fly to right, and then Andy boys sent one to second.

Fourth Inning.—Wilson made a clever stop at second, putting the runner out at first. Wilson flied out to Murphy. Van Halteren made a corker into the left field bleachers. One run.

Parrott fumbled Van Halteren's slow grounder and Van got to first. Van smacked a corker into the right field bleachers. One run.

Parrott fumbled Van Halteren's slow grounder and Van got to first. Van smacked a corker into the right field bleachers. One run.

Parrott fumbled Van Halteren's slow grounder and Van got to first. Van smacked a corker into the right field bleachers. One run.

SCORE BY INNINGS.

Chicago... 3 0 0 1 1 4
New York... 1 0 0 4 2

MACKENZIE'S HOME RUNS.

Features of Princeton's Game with Yale To-Day.

(Special to The Evening World.)
PRINCETON, N. J., June 9.—The Princeton and Yale baseball teams took third places to-day on the diamond at 3.00 o'clock. The diamond was in superb condition and the day ideal for the National game.

Betting was even and the crowd immense. Here is the batting order:

Yale.
Princeton.
Payson, 1b.
King, 2b.
Vard, 3b.
Case, 4b.
Carter, 5b.
Otto, 6b.
Speer, 7b.
Greenway, 8b.
Quincy, 9b.

First Inning.—Yale at bat. Rustin out at first. Murphy first on balls and stole second. Case to first on balls. Carter out at second. Quincy retired the side, Bradley to Otto. No run.

For Princeton Payne fled to center. King fouled out to Greenway. Ward flied to deep right. No run.

Second Inning.—Stephenson to first on balls, but out at second by Brooks on Greenway's grounder. Quincy bunted and Stephenson went out at third. Bradley caught Quincy napping at first. No run.

Princeton King hit through Arthur, but was forced out at second on Ward's grounder. Mackenzie made a home run into the left field, scoring closely behind Ward.

Otto hit to third and beat it out. Speers batted. No run.

Third Inning.—With one out, Murphy got base on balls, second, went to third on a sacrifice. Otto to first. Ward forced out at second. Quincy retired the side, Bradley to Otto. No run.

Fourth Inning.—Stephenson hit past Gunter, and was thrown out at second on Greenway's grounder. Quincy bunted and Stephenson went out at third. Bradley caught Quincy napping at first. No run.

Princeton King hit through Arthur, but was forced out at second on Ward's grounder. Mackenzie made a home run into the left field, scoring closely behind Ward.

Otto hit to third and beat it out. Speers batted. No run.

Third Inning.—With one out, Murphy got base on balls, second, went to third on a sacrifice. Otto to first. Ward forced out at second. Quincy retired the side, Bradley to Otto. No run.

Fourth Inning.—Stephenson hit past Gunter, and was thrown out at second on Greenway's grounder. Quincy bunted and Stephenson went out at third. Bradley caught Quincy napping at first. No run.

Princeton King hit through Arthur, but was forced out at second on Ward's grounder. Mackenzie made a home run into the left field, scoring closely behind Ward.

Otto hit to third and beat it out. Speers batted. No run.

Third Inning.—With one out, Murphy got base on balls, second, went to third on a sacrifice. Otto to first. Ward forced out at second. Quincy retired the side, Bradley to Otto. No run.

Fourth Inning.—Stephenson hit past Gunter, and was thrown out at second on Greenway's grounder. Quincy bunted and Stephenson went out at third. Bradley caught Quincy napping at first. No run.

BATED OUT OF THE BOX.

Killeen Couldn't Hold the Bridegrooms Anywhere and Was Relieved.

TEN RUNS IN THE FIRST.

That Was the Way Brooklyn Started Out to Paralyze Pittsburgh.

THIS LEAD SCARED THEM.

The Pirates Played in Poor Form and Could Not Find the Ball.

(Special to The Evening World.)
EASTERN PARK, BROOKLYN, June 9.—The prospect of a lively game between Brooklyn and Pittsburgh this afternoon brought out about the best attendance at these grounds this season, barring that of Memorial Day.

Fully 8,000 persons were in attendance. The cranks began to arrive early, owing to the half-holiday, and the bleachers were filled before 3 o'clock.

According to the new rule for the season, games play was called at 3.30, half an hour earlier than on other days.

It was 4 o'clock when the game started, however.

It is an enthusiastic crowd, too, and began to warm up on the preliminary practice, applying patches and stops as if a game was in progress.

The batting order:

Brooklyn.
Pittsburgh.
Schuback, 1b.
Donovan, 2b.
Treway, 3b.
Griffin, 4b.
Lyons, 5b.
Glasscock, 6b.
Potts, 7b.
Kinslow, 8b.
Daub, 9b.

First Inning.—Schuback led the state at while Daub cut the plate three times. Lyons batted. No run.

Second Inning.—Schuback led the state at while Daub cut the plate three times. Lyons batted. No run.

Third Inning.—Schuback led the state at while Daub cut the plate three times. Lyons batted. No run.

Fourth Inning.—Schuback led the state at while Daub cut the plate three times. Lyons batted. No run.

Fifth Inning.—Schuback led the state at while Daub cut the plate three times. Lyons batted. No run.

Sixth Inning.—Schuback led the state at while Daub cut the plate three times. Lyons batted. No run.

Seventh Inning.—Schuback led the state at while Daub cut the plate three times. Lyons batted. No run.

Eighth Inning.—Schuback led the state at while Daub cut the plate three times. Lyons batted. No run.

Ninth Inning.—Schuback led the state at while Daub cut the plate three times. Lyons batted. No run.

WASP WON THE CUP.

The Providence Yacht First in the Special Sweepstakes.

Fine Weather and a Big Crowd for the Larchmont Club Races.

All Events Filled Well, Thirty Boats Contesting.

(Special to The Evening World.)
LARCHMONT, N. Y., June 9.—The Larchmont Yacht Club regatta was a success from the start. There was a large crowd on the club-house balcony when the start was made, soon after 11.30 o'clock. Following are the entries:

SCHOONERS—CLASS B.
Name Length. Name Length.
Ariel... 25.00. Atlanta... 25.31.
Kismet... 25.00. Atlanta... 25.31.

CLASS C.
Name Length. Name Length.
Loral... 25.00. Atlanta... 25.31.
Ariel... 25.00. Atlanta... 25.31.

CLASS D.
Name Length. Name Length.
Loral... 25.00. Atlanta... 25.31.
Ariel... 25.00. Atlanta... 25.31.

CLASS E.
Name Length. Name Length.
Loral... 25.00. Atlanta... 25.31.
Ariel... 25.00. Atlanta... 25.31.

CLASS F.
Name Length. Name Length.
Loral... 25.00. Atlanta... 25.31.
Ariel... 25.00. Atlanta... 25.31.

CLASS G.
Name Length. Name Length.
Loral... 25.00. Atlanta... 25.31.
Ariel... 25.00. Atlanta... 25.31.

CLASS H.
Name Length. Name Length.
Loral... 25.00. Atlanta... 25.31.
Ariel... 25.00. Atlanta... 25.31.

CLASS I.
Name Length. Name Length.
Loral... 25.00. Atlanta... 25.31.
Ariel... 25.00. Atlanta... 25.31.

CLASS J.
Name Length. Name Length.
Loral... 25.00. Atlanta... 25.31.
Ariel... 25.00. Atlanta... 25.31.

CLASS K.
Name Length. Name Length.
Loral... 25.00. Atlanta... 25.31.
Ariel... 25.00. Atlanta... 25.31.

CLASS L.
Name Length. Name Length.
Loral... 25.00. Atlanta... 25.31.
Ariel... 25.00. Atlanta... 25.31.

CLASS M.
Name Length. Name Length.
Loral... 25.00. Atlanta... 25.31.
Ariel... 25.00. Atlanta... 25.31.

CLASS N.
Name Length. Name Length.
Loral... 25.00. Atlanta... 25.31.
Ariel... 25.00. Atlanta... 25.31.

CLASS O.
Name Length. Name Length.
Loral... 25.00. Atlanta... 25.31.
Ariel... 25.00. Atlanta... 25.31.

CLASS P.
Name Length. Name Length.
Loral... 25.00. Atlanta... 25.31.
Ariel... 25.00. Atlanta... 25.31.

CLASS Q.
Name Length. Name Length.
Loral... 25.00. Atlanta... 25.31.
Ariel... 25.00. Atlanta... 25.31.

TWO RECORDS BROKEN.

New Yorks Beat Boston in the Mile Relay Race.

Chase, a New Yorker, Smashes the Hurdle Figures.

Five Thousand People See the Games at Travers Island.

(Special to The Evening World.)
TRAVIS ISLAND, N. Y., June 9.—A great crowd gathered at the hand-some grounds of the New York Athletic Club, at Travers Island, this afternoon in expectation of witnessing some of the finest sport that the season would afford. The day was perfect, the track in prime condition and among the entrants were most of the prominent performers in all branches of field and track athletics in this vicinity, including many of the cracks from the college teams of Yale, Harvard, University of Pennsylvania and Columbia, who took part in the recent intercollegiate contest at Berkeley Oval.

The races were started with a 75-yard dash handicap, which was won by the first heat was won by E. B. Bloss, Harvard, in 1-5.8. C. Hollister, Yale, second.

Second heat won by L. M. Lawson, N. Y. A. C. Time 1-5.1. N. Jordan, N. Y. A. C. Time 1-5.1. N. Jordan, N. Y. A. C. Time 1-5.1.

Third heat won by E. W. Seidler, N. Y. A. C. Time 1-5.1. N. Jordan, N. Y. A. C. Time 1-5.1. N. Jordan, N. Y. A. C. Time 1-5.1.

Fourth heat won by H. K. Zunt, N. Y. A. C. Time 1-5.1. N. Jordan, N. Y. A. C. Time 1-5.1. N. Jordan, N. Y. A. C. Time 1-5.1.

Fifth heat won by E. H. Cady, N. Y. A. C. Time 1-5.1. N. Jordan, N. Y. A. C. Time 1-5.1. N. Jordan, N. Y. A. C. Time 1-5.1.

Sixth heat won by W. De Salazar, N. Y. A. C. Time 1-5.1. N. Jordan, N. Y. A. C. Time 1-5.1. N. Jordan, N. Y. A. C. Time 1-5.1.

The 120 yards hurdle race was won easily by George Chase, N. Y. A. C., in 1-5.8. D. B. Hatch, Yale, was second and E. W. Seidler, N. Y. A. C., hit the second hurdle and sprained his leg.

The running high jump proved to be a very close race, which was won by N. Y. A. C. won. Height 4 feet 11-1/2 inches. N. Y. A. C. won. Height 4 feet 11-1/2 inches.

The 220 yards race was won by N. Y. A. C. won. Height 4 feet 11-1/2 inches. N. Y. A. C. won. Height 4 feet 11-1/2 inches.

The 440 yards race was won by N. Y. A. C. won. Height 4 feet 11-1/2 inches. N. Y. A. C. won. Height 4 feet 11-1/2 inches.

The 880 yards race was won by N. Y. A. C. won. Height 4 feet 11-1/2 inches. N. Y. A. C. won. Height 4 feet 11-1/2 inches.

The 1,760 yards race was won by N. Y. A. C. won. Height 4 feet 11-1/2 inches. N. Y. A. C. won. Height 4 feet 11-1/2 inches.

The 3,520 yards race was won by N. Y. A. C. won. Height 4 feet 11-1/2 inches. N. Y. A. C. won. Height 4 feet 11-1/2 inches.

The 7,040 yards race was won by N. Y. A. C. won. Height 4 feet 11-1/2 inches. N. Y. A. C. won. Height 4 feet 11-1/2 inches.

The 14,080 yards race was won by N. Y. A. C. won. Height 4 feet 11-1/2 inches. N. Y. A. C. won. Height 4 feet 11-1/2 inches.

The 28,160 yards race was won by N. Y. A. C. won. Height 4 feet 11-1/2 inches. N. Y. A. C. won. Height 4 feet 11-1/2 inches.

CORRECTION.

ALL THE WAY.

Takes the Toboggan Slide Handicap from Roche at Morris Park.

PALADIN WINS BY A NECK.

Captures the Larchmont Stakes from Keenan, with Trevelyan Third.

ARMITAGE THE FIRST WINNER.

He Takes the Event Handily—Sport Wins the Second Race in a Canter.

(Special to The Evening World.)
RACE TRACK, MORRIS PARK, June 9.—The usual Saturday crowd and a few thousand more attended the races here to-day. They came here loaded with money, prepared to give the bookies a good stiff argument. How they made out, can be easily gleaned from the summaries of the races below. Generally on Saturdays, winners are hard to pick.

The weather was almost perfect for racing purposes, but was a trifle too warm for the crowd that packed itself into the betting ring.

The Colonel was in a decided condition and very fast. Predictions were made on all sides that the six-furlong record of 1:00, made by Domino last year, would be broken in the Toboggan Slide Handicap.

Some of the reporters wanted to go to the start, but they were met with refusal by the starter. Mr. Rowe explained, however, everything pertaining to the start was in the hands of the starting judge, Col. Hall, and permission must be asked of that official before any one could go to the start.

The Colonel was in a decided condition and very fast. Predictions were made on all sides that the six-furlong record of 1:00, made by Domino last year, would be broken in the Toboggan Slide Handicap.

Some of the reporters wanted to go to the start, but they were met with refusal by the starter. Mr. Rowe explained, however, everything pertaining to the start was in the hands of the starting judge, Col. Hall, and permission must be asked of that official before any one could go to the start.

The Colonel was in a decided condition and very fast. Predictions were made on all sides that the six-furlong record of 1:00, made by Domino last year, would be broken in the Toboggan Slide Handicap.

Some of the reporters wanted to go to the start, but they were met with refusal by the starter. Mr. Rowe explained, however, everything pertaining to the start was in the hands of the starting judge, Col. Hall, and permission must be asked of that official before any one could go to the start.

The Colonel was in a decided condition and very fast. Predictions were made on all sides that the six-furlong record of 1:00, made by Domino last year, would be broken in the Toboggan Slide Handicap.

Some of the reporters wanted to go to the start, but they were met with refusal by the starter. Mr. Rowe explained, however, everything pertaining to the start was in the hands of the starting judge, Col. Hall, and permission must be asked of that official before any one could go to the start.

The Colonel was in a decided condition and very fast. Predictions were made on all sides that the six-furlong record of 1:00, made by Domino last year, would be broken in the Toboggan Slide Handicap.

Some of the reporters wanted to go to the start, but they were met with refusal by the starter. Mr. Rowe explained, however, everything pertaining to the start was in the hands of the starting judge, Col. Hall, and permission must be asked of that official before any one could go to the start.

The Colonel was in a decided condition and very fast. Predictions were made on all sides that the six-furlong record of 1:00, made by Domino last year, would be broken in the Toboggan Slide Handicap.

Some of the reporters wanted to go to the start, but they were met with refusal by the starter. Mr. Rowe explained, however, everything pertaining to the start was in the hands of the starting judge, Col. Hall, and permission must be asked of that official before any one could go to the start.

DICK CROKER SAILS AWAY.

Tammany's Ex-Boss Departs Suddenly and Secretly for Europe.

A PASSENGER ON THE UMBRIA.

His Name Not on the Steamer's List and His Action a Big Surprise.

OUT OF GOFF'S JURISDICTION.

Belief that the Ex-Chief Passed a Lexow Committee Subpoena.

Richard Croker, the ex-boss of Tammany Hall, has placed himself out of reach of the Lexow Committee, and the troubles of the committee are increased by the fact that Croker has sailed for Europe, accompanied by his two sons, Richard, Jr., and Herbert.

Mr. Croker's name was not on the printed passenger list, and only a few intimate friends upon whose silence he could depend were taken into his confidence. Preparations for his departure were made without any one being aware of his intention to sail away to foreign shores, and the secret was not let out until he was safe beyond the reach of the Lexow Committee's subpoena.

Conspiration followed, however, when the politicians learned that Croker had again turned his back on the committee. Mr. Croker's departure was a big surprise.

It was positively denied by his friends and at the office of the Cunard line that Mr. Croker had sailed for Europe until the Umbria was far down the bay. Then his friends admitted that Mr. Croker had gone away for his health, they said.

Mr. Umbria left her pier shortly after 10 o'clock. Just before the steamer pulled out from the pier Mr. Croker, accompanied by his brother-in-law, Health Officer W. T. Jenkins, Commissioner of Public Works, Richard T. Daly, Jr., and Herbert Croker, boarded the vessel.

Mr. Daly took a warm farewell of his former chief and rushed down the gangplank to the pier as the last warning bell was sounded.

Health Officer Jenkins remained on the steamship until the Quarantine Station was reached, and disembarked there on the steamer Charles F. Allen, which conveyed him ashore.

From Dr. Jenkins' cottage, on the hilltop at Quarantine, Mr. Croker, who waved handkerchiefs in adieu, Mr. Croker, from the Umbria's deck, took off his hat and waved it in answer, and then kissed his finger-tips to the ladies.

Green's Secretary Observed.

Mr. Michael Daly could not be found after leaving the steamship pier, and it is supposed that he had received instructions to keep out of sight for a time.

Wickie Daniel M. Donegan, Mr. Croker's other confidential friend, denied that he knew of Croker's departure until he saw him on the steamer. He then said:

"Mr. Croker is a sick man, and he would have sailed for Europe some time ago had it not been for the illness of Mrs. Croker's mother."

Mayor Gilroy, when seen in his office by an "Evening World" reporter, said he had no personal knowledge of Mr. Croker's departure, but he heard last night that Mr. Croker intended to leave to-day. The Mayor did not know who accompanied the ex-boss, how long he expected to remain away, or any of his plans for the trip.

"I have not seen Mr. Croker," said Mayor Gilroy, "more than five times since he resigned from the organization."

You might see Commissioner Daly. I understand he was to see Mr. Croker off, and he may be able to give you some information."

DICK CROKER SAILS AWAY.

Tammany's Ex-Boss Departs Suddenly and Secretly for Europe.

A PASSENGER ON THE UMBRIA.

His Name Not on the Steamer's List and His Action a Big Surprise.

OUT OF GOFF'S JURISDICTION.

Belief that the Ex-Chief Passed a Lexow Committee Subpoena.

Richard Croker, the ex-boss of Tammany Hall, has placed himself out of reach of the Lexow Committee, and the troubles of the committee are increased by the fact that Croker has sailed for Europe, accompanied by his two sons, Richard, Jr., and Herbert.

Mr. Croker's name was not on the printed passenger list, and only a few intimate friends upon whose silence he could depend were taken into his confidence. Preparations for his departure were made without any one being aware of his intention to sail away to foreign shores, and the secret was not let out until he was safe beyond the reach of the Lexow Committee's subpoena.

Conspiration followed, however, when the politicians learned that Croker had again turned his back on the committee. Mr. Croker's departure was a big surprise.

It was positively denied by his friends and at the office of the Cunard line that Mr. Croker had sailed for Europe until the Umbria was far down the bay. Then his friends admitted that Mr. Croker had gone away for his health, they said.

Mr. Umbria left her pier shortly after 10 o'clock. Just before the steamer pulled out from the pier Mr. Croker, accompanied by his brother-in-law, Health Officer W. T. Jenkins, Commissioner of Public Works, Richard T. Daly, Jr., and Herbert Croker, boarded the vessel.

Mr. Daly took a warm farewell of his former chief and rushed down the gangplank to the pier as the last warning bell was sounded.

Health Officer Jenkins remained on the steamship until the Quarantine Station was reached, and disembarked there on the steamer Charles F. Allen, which conveyed him ashore.

From Dr. Jenkins' cottage, on the hilltop at Quarantine, Mr. Croker, who waved handkerchiefs in adieu, Mr. Croker, from the Umbria's deck, took off his hat and waved it in answer, and then kissed his finger-tips to the ladies.

Green's Secretary Observed.

Mr. Michael Daly could not be found after leaving the steamship pier, and it is supposed that he had received instructions to keep out of sight for a time.

Wickie Daniel M. Donegan, Mr. Croker's other confidential friend, denied that he knew of Croker's departure until he saw him on the steamer. He then said:

"Mr. Croker is a sick man, and he would have sailed for Europe some time ago had it not been for the illness of Mrs. Croker's mother."

Mayor Gilroy, when seen in his office by an "Evening World" reporter, said he had no personal knowledge of Mr. Croker's departure, but he heard last night that Mr. Croker intended to leave to-day. The Mayor did not know who accompanied the ex-boss, how long he expected to remain away, or any of his plans for the trip.

"I have not seen Mr. Croker," said Mayor Gilroy, "more than five times since he resigned from the organization."

You might see Commissioner Daly. I understand he was to see Mr. Croker off, and he may be able to give you some information."